Mormon Slough Bridge Crossing: Temporary Detours and Construction

(Stockton, CA) – The City of Stockton will close a southbound traffic lane on South San Joaquin Street, from Hazelton Avenue to the Mormon Slough Bridge Crossing, for bridge repair at the north end. Work is scheduled to begin Wednesday, October 1, 2014, and is estimated to continue through Friday, October 10, 2014. The bridge will be completely closed during work hours but will reopen at the end of each day.

The public is asked to travel slowly in the construction zone and follow all posted traffic controls in the area.

For more information on street closures, please visit www.stocktongov.com/publicworks or call (209) 937-8341.
